SPOTLIGHT

I spotlighted Taylor in the Newsletter Room and I, Haley, ask her how long she has worked as a DSP at LARC in Bedford. She stated that she had been with Stonebelt for four months. When ask if she likes her job she says of course she does! Something big that is going to happen Taylor is she that she is going to get married. She has two fur babies named Hazel and Chevy. In college she liked to play softball and basketball. She likes tonos and Quesos, she can burp the ABCs on command. In her free time she likes to read books and ride motorcycles.

Chocolate Angel Pie

- 4 extra-large egg whites, at room temp.
- ¼ teaspoon cream of tartar
- 2/3 cup sugar
- 2 tablespoons unsweetened cocoa (not Dutch-processed type)
- 1 cup heavy (double) cream, whipped with 2 tablespoons sugar
- Miniature chocolate chips for topping

Position a rack in the middle of an oven and preheat the oven to 300 degrees F. Generously butter 10-in pie plate with 2 in sided. Dust with flour and tap any excess.

Place egg whites, cream of tartar and sugar in a bowl. Using a mixer set on high, beat until stiff and glossy but not dry. Reduce the speed to low and beat in the cocoa, mixing only until incorporated.

Pour and scrape the batter into the prepared pie plates. Use a rubber spatula to smooth the top, building the rim slightly higher than the center.

Bake until the egg whites are light brown and no longer sticky, about 1 hour. Transfer to a wire rack to cool completely. The center will sink as it cools.

Just before serving, fill the center with whipped cream. Sprinkle with miniature chocolate chips.

I am always ready to learn although I do not always like being taught.
A Easter Story

Once when I was small Barbie (my cousin), Amy and I had to go to bed really early. Our moms told said the Easter Bunny would come and I was the first to wake up so I also woke Amy and Barbie; there were three bags of different colors I had a pink bag; Barbie had a green bag and Amy had a yellow one. When we opened them we all had toys and candy.

A Coloring Story

I love to color in Barbie books all kinds of books actually like hearts, flowers and bears; I also like playing with Play-dough. I can do all sorts of art stuff.
