Valentine' Day Trip to the State House

We do artwork at the LARC Center; a lot of people do the art such as Haley, Kelly, Ashley and Troy.

Kelly, Haley, Beth and Carrie went to the State House on February 14, to see Eric Koch and Brent Steele. Eric Koch was in a meeting all day long; so we could not meet with him. Haley and Carrie got to meet briefly with Brent Steele; but Kelly was still eating lunch. The good news was that on February 15, Eric Koch came out to LARC to see us. Kelly and Haley got their picture taken with him, along with a lot of other people. Haley and Kelly had a lot of fun and would like to go back next year. Eric Koch is trying to get jobs for the people at LARC.

Valentines' Day Art

Haley and I went to the State House in Indy to deliver cards to our State Representatives. The card I made was a mosaic style. I used small pieces of paint samples to make a border, and then I used ribbons and plastic jewels to make flowers. The finishing touch was a healthy sprinkling of purple glitter, Ashley made a card with a jeweled heart. Troy made a card with hearts and flowers.

Follow-Up on Valentines' Day Dance

We all had a good time at the dance. We had a light dinner and snacks. The dance floor was crowded; lots of people were dancing. We were glad to have Kevin and Misty Silvers as the D.J.'s.

Thanks Again Patty and Tim !!!!

St. Patrick's Day

St. Patrick's Day is celebrated on March 17th. St. Patrick of Ireland was born in Wales around 385 A. D. His given name was Maewyn. He considered himself a pagan. He was kidnapped and sold into slavery by Irish marauders. He converted to Christianity during this time; he adopted the name Patrick. He escaped six years later and went to Gaul. He studied in a monastery for twelve years. He felt that he was called to convert pagans to Christianity. Patrick was successful in converting many pagans. He used the shamrock to explain the Holy Trinity. St. Patrick died on March 17, 460 A. D. The St. Patrick's Day custom came to America in 1737. The first celebration was in Boston, Massachusetts; they had a large Irish population (and they still do). Most of the Irish people were Roman Catholic.

Spring 2013

Spring can start on March 19, 20 or 21. This year it will start on March 20. The Vernal (Spring) Equinox is on that day this year. We learned in North America that spring moves north one hundred miles each week. Spring takes three months to move from the southern tip of Florida etc. to northern edge of Maine etc.. Tree blossoms are pollinated by insects and the wind; flower structures are pollinated by spring breezes or bumblebees.
